SCIENCE AND QR TUTOR REQUEST

The Science and QR Tutoring Program is designed to provide individual tutoring to undergraduates who are experiencing academic difficulty and at risk of earning a "C+" or below in a course. Students should complete Section A and the course instructor or teaching assistant should complete Section B. Questions, frank.robinson@yale.edu. Completed application forms can be returned SQR Reception Area, 20 SSS.

Section A (To be completed by student)

1. Name: ___________________________ Date: ___________________________
2. Email address: ___________________________ Phone: ___________________________
3. College: ___________________________ Class: ___________________________ Major: ___________________________
4. Course & number for which tutor is requested: ___________________________
5. Is this course required for your major? __________ Have you taken this course before? __________
6. If yes, when? __________ Is this the second part of a two semester course? __________
7. If yes, did you have a tutor for the first part? __________ Do you want the same tutor? __________
8. Indicate briefly the area(s) of concern in the course ___________________________

Section B (To be completed by instructor or teaching fellow)
Questions 2 & 3 must be answered in order to assign a tutor.

1. Name: ___________________________ Phone: ___________________________
2. Is this student at risk of receiving a course grade of C+ or lower? ___________________________
3. Do you believe that individual tutoring would be appropriate in this situation? ___________________________
4. On what basis have you made this evaluation? (e.g. graded exercises, class participation, individual discussion with student) ___________________________
5. Are there departmental support services that are available to the student? ___________________________
   Please describe these services ___________________________
6. Has the student used these services? __________ If no, would it be useful for the student to try to use them? __________
7. Additional comments: ___________________________

Signature ___________________________ Date ___________________________

FOR SCIENCE AND QR TUTORING PROGRAM USE ONLY

Tutor: ___________________________ Univ. Affiliation: ___________________________ Date assigned: ___________________________

Tutor: ___________________________ Univ. Affiliation: ___________________________ Date assigned: ___________________________

Tutor: ___________________________ Univ. Affiliation: ___________________________ Date assigned: ___________________________