The Film Festival Planning Committee wishes to thank:

The filmmakers for their hard work, for making this all possible and worthwhile… and for submitting films next year, too! 😊

Laura Tomas for being an enthusiastic and knowledgeable planning partner in all things Film Festival both big and small!

Patrice Bowman for her contributions to planning, marketing, and, in particular, judging and scoring!

Lori Seluga, Manager of the Student Technology Collaborative for her initial encouragement and strong partnership and support for this event!

Master Pitti for his tireless dedication to Ezra Stiles College and his dedication to the happiness and success of all Moose!

Julia Myers for her many contributions at the brainstorming stage and a willingness to answer any and all technical questions from students (and staff!)

Mary Jo Miller for her knowledge, wisdom, sense of humor, willingness to put up with relatively last-minute hair-brained schemes, and ability to find the best looking Golden Moose trophy on the planet!

All the Master’s Aides for chipping in with ideas, photocopies, and everything in between (including film-themed fiestas – thanks, Ben Mullet!)

All our judges for their time and effort (and saying yes!).

The Ezra Stiles College Council (ESCC), especially its President Lee Kennedy-Shaffer, for marketing support and general enthusiasm!

The Student Activities Committee (SAC), especially President Rosie Buchanan, for marketing support and the use of Rosie’s extensive Facebook connections!

The Moose – Where would we be without the Moose? GFM!!!

Everyone who attended the Festival - you’re helping start a great new tradition for Ezra Stiles College and all future Moose!
